

Bio for Bill Reynolds

BILL REYNOLDS is a retired professional Engineer who worked in Arkansas and other states with licenses in Chemical - Mechanical Engineering. Bill received his BS in Chemical Engineering from the University of Arkansas.

He worked as a Mining Engineer in the Bauxite Industry and the Vanadium Industry for the extraction of ores and conversion to metals, and ceramics. Bill has extensive experience in crystallography, chemical properties of minerals and refining processes. Experience in Arkansas and Jamaica, WI.

Bill is a former President and Chairman of the Board for the Northwest Arkansas Gem and Mineral Society. Currently, he works tirelessly as the Field Trip Chairman. Bill has an extensive collection of Arkansas minerals as well as other locations from the US and overseas.